- 1 One company has on-site facilities in which they pay rent; The others are allowed space to park their trucks but pay a vendor fee.
- 2 fee is $700 per season per company, to help offset the cost of cleaning up the area.
- 3 Two (2) of them have storage trailers parked on site
- 4 feed companies usually leave their trailers here - no permanent building
- 5 Feed Companies that have storage space on our backside pay monthly rent.
- 6 We provide a parking lot for suppliers' tractor trailers; Suppliers distribute their products from there via smaller trucks.
