

RESULTS OF 2013 TRA CLOCKER SURVEY
December 2013

Track	No. of clockers for morning workouts:	Clockers location:	Clockers Pay Range	Any other functions:	State policies or rules to verify workouts?	Track policies or rules to verify workouts?
A	2 Clockers and 2 Spotters	Press Box Clocker stand (away from rail) with spotter at each of the two gaps	Clockers: $17.50-$21.00 per hour $13.50-$15.50 per hour for gap attendants	One clocker was hired by Equibase in the afternoon to take charts	No	No
B <sup>1</sup>	1 (2 individuals-each work 3 days alone)	Stewards stand with their own telephone extension & walkie talkie	They are paid according to their primary job (currently Placing Judge and Identifier) approx $15/hr. They just get more hours due to training hours starting before office hours.	Currently one is a Placing Judge and the other is the Identifier	Rules state horses that haven't run in 60 days must have 1 work; if 90 days they need 2 works. Firsters must have 3 works including at least 1 gate work.	The only rule concerning verification is when checking the 60 or 90 day rule. If the work in question is at Beulah we confirm the horse was on the grounds and the clocker must have an unresolved workout that day.
C <sup>2</sup>	3 during live racing 2 during non-racing	Press Box Clocker stand (away from rail) - 4th floor balcony at wire	$105 per day - $24.70 per hour	No	No	No
D	6	One located on the backside, remainder in Press box	$120-$160 per day	No	Yes	Yes
E <sup>3</sup>	2	Press Box Clocker stand (away from rail)	$20.00 per hour	No	No	No
F	2	One located in crows nest-one located in a booth at 1/2 mile pole	$67.86 per day - double time on Sunday	No	Section 4003.53 of the NYS racing laws. Gap attendant is the name of the rule	Clockers turn in slips after the works and signed by trainers
G	1 on weekdays 3 on weekends	Press Box Clocker stand (away from rail) located on the roof of grandstand	$15 per hour	No	All exercise riders must check in at the clockers stand to register their horse with the identifier prior to commencing a workout.	No
H	1 (sometimes 2)	Press Box Clocker stand (away from rail)	$120-$140 per day	No	No	No
I	3 on Fri-Sat-Sun. 2 on Mon-Thur.	Clockers Stand is backside near 5/8th pole	$90 per day	No	Policy is trainer must verify workouts with clocker if name is omitted or misspelled	No
J	2	Press Box Clocker stand (away from rail)	$65 per day	One clocker is also our photofinish operator @ $120/day additional	No	The working horse needs to be reported to the coordinator and/or clocker before breaking off.
K	1	Trackside	$14.50 per hour	No	No	No
L	2 during the peak hours	Press Box Clocker stand (away from rail) - stewards stand	$80 per day	They have worked in the past as jock's valets, test techs and racing officials	None to speak of other than stewards review.	None to speak of other than racing secretaries' review

Totals: 12

RESULTS OF 2013 TRA CLOCKER SURVEY
December 2013

- Comments:
- 1 - Horses coming to the track for works must give the name and distance of the work to the outrider or if a gate work to the starter
  - 2 - It is the trainer's responsibility to report horse's name to gap attendants or clockers before actual workouts. Trainers who do not cooperate are reported to the stewards
  - 3 - The clocker is the only one allowed to submit workouts to Equibase.